86th Annual BIBLE LECTURESHIP

LETTER from the PRESIDENT

Welcome to this year's edition of the annual Bible Lectureship at Abilene Christian University. Every year brings the promise of a great spiritual feast. This year's lineup of sermons, classes and times of worship is no different.

Our constant prayer is that ACU and events such as this will serve the greater purposes of the kingdom.

Like the many guests who come to lectureship, I look forward each year to renewing friendships, making new acquaintances, and hearing about the exciting things going on in our churches. Lectureship is more than just lectures and classes. It is a time of great fellowship.

This year we hope to enhance the sense of community by featuring the Teague Special Events Center as both our exhibit hall and primary fellowship space. So join us this year in the Teague Center for a sandwich or piece of pie, tour the exhibits, and strengthen the bonds of love in Christ through fellowship.

Let us say at the end of this lectureship that we worshipped God, feasted on His word, encouraged one another to greater service in the kingdom, and prayed for God's renewing presence among us. Then we will say together that the 86th annual Bible Lectureship was an investment in eternity.

ROYCE MONEY

President, Abilene Christian University

LETTER from the DIRECTOR

To use Isaiah's words, the 86th annual Bible Lectureship of Abilene Christian University is an invitation to "Come to the Waters."

The waters offer refreshment for parched and dry lives. The waters cleanse, making us spotless.

The waters offer life – a new birth. You cannot hear the invitation to "come to the waters" without thinking both of the living water offered by Jesus and the waters of our baptism that swept us into the life of God. So, as we come to lectureship this year, we expect to find all that water offers. We expect to be renewed.

Talking about renewal brings both hope and challenge. Everyone longs for renewal, and the prospect of being renewed into the image of our Creator gives us ultimate hope. But the concept of renewal also assumes that we lack something, or that we have misplaced something vital, or perhaps that we have lost our bearings. Renewal often leads us to hope through the pain of transition. It takes courage to talk about renewal. May God give us the courage and spirit of openness required to seek His renewing presence.

We have a sure guide this week in the book of Isaiah. The images of renewal found there are rich and compelling. Our time gathered around this great book will surely encourage us in powerful ways. Isaiah will also lift our eyes and call us to a greater life before God than what we currently know or experience. What a great treat we will share together at this year's ACU Bible Lectureship.

PRAISE and PRAYER

*At lectureship we gather to experience worship in its rich variety.
Take advantage of the following opportunities:*

- Worship and Praise. At 6:15 p.m. in Moody Coliseum Light of the World (Sunday) and HIP (Monday through Wednesday) will perform.
- Late Night Praise. God's people find their place in the world through the act of praise. May God be exalted above all else. This year Hallal will again lead our late-night praise Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in Moody Coliseum immediately following the main lecture. A special guest speaker will join Hallal each night to bring word and praise together in a powerful way (Sunday--Eddie Sharp, Monday--Don McLaughlin, Tuesday--Lynn Anderson). End your day by lifting your voice in praise.
- Zambian Vocal Collection will be in Moody Coliseum on Wednesday following the evening lecture.
- Mike Cope and Zoe Group. During the 8:30 a.m. session each day, Mike Cope and the Zoe Group will offer a time of reflection and worship focused on "The Sacred Journey." Allow this time of worship to lift your eyes to the exciting nature of our life with God and frame the rest of your day with a morning of praise.
- Old-Time Singing. Join the saints who gather every year to sing those hymns that have stood the test of time. Gene Linder will again lead the singing at 3:15 p.m. in the Chapel on the Hill. Don't miss this chance to sing your old favorites.
- "Come to the Quiet." A Season of Song, Prayer and Contemplation. This rich service of worship will be marked by prayer, simple meditative songs, reading of the Word, commitment to the ministry of reconciliation in the world, and a time for silence. The call to watch, pray, listen and wait has been at the heart of worship from the beginning of Christianity. Late night following the evening lecture, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in the Chapel on the Hill.
- Morning Prayers. Start each day centered in God. Join us each day at 8 a.m. in the Chapel on the Hill for morning prayers and devotion.
- Meet Me at Teague. Throughout the day, ACU student a cappella singing groups will be performing in the Teague Special Events Center. Enjoy the sounds of Keren, The Light, The Group and Escape while spending time in our newest location for exhibits, food and fellowship.

Faithful CONVERSATIONS

FORUM: INTERNATIONAL CHURCH OF CHRIST AND "MAINLINE" CHURCHES OF CHRIST

This year Lectureship Forum features a conversation between representatives of both International Churches of Christ and "mainline" Churches of Christ. For nearly 20 years, a growing silence has marked the division between these two groups. While division loves silence, peace cherishes conversation. The good news is that change in both groups has brought us to a place where conversation is again welcomed and desired.

Though the differences between the movements are real, the issues significant, and the pain of division often deep, Lectureship Forum in 2004 extends hope that God's healing is possible. This conversation does not represent a declaration of unity, a glossing-over of issues, or a denial of past wounds. Rather, Lectureship Forum represents a first step taken toward each other through the spiritual art of conversation – listening and speaking truth to one another in love.

Please be praying for those who will participate in this year's forum: Al Baird, Mike Taliaferro, Gregg Marutzky, Gordon Ferguson, Jack Reese, Jim Woodroof and John Wilson. You'll want to be present for these historic conversations.

DAY ONE: "Who Are the International Churches of Christ?" The first day of the forum will allow ICOC representatives to talk about their identity as a movement and to discuss recent changes that have significantly shaped their direction.

DAY TWO: "Our Shared Story" Representatives of "mainline" churches will join the conversation and reflect on our common roots and shared history.

DAY THREE: "Prospects for the Future" The final day will allow all participants to dream of a future marked by God's healing. Where will the conversation lead us? What skills will we need for the journey?

Meet Me at Teague!

Alas, at last year's lectureship Ol' Man Winter buried the venerable tradition of the lectureship tent under ice and snow. (A tent in February sounds like such a good idea!) Never fear. This year we will combine both fellowship and exhibits in the Teague Special Events Center.

In a move akin to going from tabernacle to temple, we will move pie, coffee, sandwiches, croissants and other goodies into the more weather-impervious Teague Center. Lectureship guests will be able to visit with each other away from the bustling crowds of the Campus Center, and they can visit our new exhibit area featuring wider aisles, larger exhibit spaces and a revamped Lectureship Central.

We expect to hear many of our guests shout to friends the new lectureship slogan, "Meet me at Teague!"

ART and FAITH

Given the overwhelming response to last year's "Art and Faith" program, we have decided to make it a regular feature of every lectureship. Through song, painting, sculpture and drama, we will allow our senses to take in the glory of God.

THE ACU DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC PRESENTS

A Cappella and University Chorale

If you love chorale music, you will want to be in Cullen Auditorium on Monday evening after the main lecture. For years, lectureship guests have thrilled to these presentations. Make your plans to be there.

The Collegiate Orchestra

ACU's orchestra will perform Tuesday evening in Cullen Auditorium after the main lecture. End your lectureship day with music to soothe the soul.

HELP! I NEED A FAITH LIFT!

Join performer Geanetta Bennett as she explores the relationship between art and the life of the church. Through teaching, acting and singing, she will encourage us to seek renewal through art. (Monday and Tuesday, 9:45 a.m., Fulks Theatre, Williams Performing Arts Center)

TO OPEN EYES THAT ARE BLIND

The ACU Department of Art and Design will host an exhibition of pieces focusing on spirituality. Mining the rich themes of Isaiah, these ACU artists will unveil traditional and contemporary compositions to open our eyes to the biblical world. These pieces will be on display throughout lectureship in the Shore Art Gallery. A reception to meet the artists will be held Monday at 5 p.m. A brown bag lunch will be held Tuesday at 12:15 p.m. to feature presentations by some of the artists who will discuss their work. All events will be held in Shore Art Gallery.

MARVIN'S ROOM

A SPECIAL LECTURESHIP PRESENTATION

A funny and wondrous account of one woman's commitment to loving others first, and her belief that giving such love has made her life unbelievably rich, even as she faces her own death. "The themes of death, love, duty, care and service are frugally intertwined in a play of considerable emotional resonance. Laughing one minute, we are shuddering with a stealthy empathy the next. Death has rarely seemed more interesting or love so complex." – New York Post

GOSPEL and CULTURE

A MISSION MANDATE FOR NORTH AMERICA

In a post-Christian culture, we can no longer assume an "if we build it they will come" mentality of church life. We must recover a sense that the church is a missionary community sent into the world. Missionary work with North America will require both a new engagement with the culture and new understandings of the nature and work of the church. Existing churches will need to have the courage to move beyond business as usual. And a new generation of church plants will be needed to demonstrate what missionary churches look like in our changing culture. This year lectureship will feature several programs that will help cast the vision for a new day in ministry for North America.

CHURCH PLANTING

Renewal Through Reproduction: A Mandate for North America. Randy Harris, Jack Reese and John Ogren will call us to the task of church planting. (Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, 9:45 a.m., Recital Hall, Williams Performing Arts Center)

Renewal Through Production: How It Can Happen. Kent Smith, Paul Faulkner, Ike Graul and Sam Tumlinson will describe the church plants with which they have been involved. (Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, 2 p.m., Recital Hall, Williams Performing Arts Center)

COFFEE HOUSE

Gospel and Culture Coffee House. What conversations might the gospel have with popular culture? After the main lecture each evening, bring friend for a late-night cup of coffee and a dialogue between the gospel and contemporary culture. (Bean Sprout, downstairs, McGlothlin Campus Center)
